

“We found the transition from Quadrem to Ariba Network quick and easy. Now there is no way to lose an order, because it comes through the system and is paperless. It’s seamless.”

Andre Smith, General Manager for Contracts and Projects, Bearing Man Group (Pty) Ltd.

Africa’s largest distributor, manufacturer, and service provider of engineering consumables and components, Bearing Man Group (Pty) Ltd. (BMG), connected with buyers through Quadrem Network. Following the acquisition of Quadrem, BMG is now fully migrated to Ariba® Network. After a brief adjustment period, BMG teams are enjoying streamlined and paperless order management.
