

Computacenter: Transacting €100 Million in Revenue Annually over the Ariba® Network

Businesses across Europe rely on independent provider of IT infrastructure services, Computacenter, for a wide range of networking and collaboration solutions. A leader in the industry, Computacenter delivers on-site services in nearly 60 countries and supplies IT hardware and software in more than 100 countries.

Computacenter tapped into the Ariba® Network to create its branded Web shop, Computacenter Connect, including order acknowledgment, invoice integration, and electronic payment capabilities. With the Ariba Punchout solution, Computacenter's electronic catalog of services and products is integrated with customers' procurement systems. Now, the majority of orders are made electronically through Computacenter Connect, eliminating errors and manual processes, saving customers time, and helping them make more-informed buying decisions.
